

ILLINOIS SWINE DAY 2019

December 13, 2019
9:00 AM to 3:00 PM
Illinois Department of Agriculture
801 Sangamon Avenue, Springfield, IL

- 8:30 AM Registration
- 9:00 AM What is ASF and why are we worried about it?
Dr. Jim Lowe, University of Illinois Extension
- 9:30 AM What is really happening with ASF in Europe and Asia?
Dr. Joseph Connor, Carthage Veterinary Service
- 10:15 AM How might ASF spread in the U.S.?
Ben Blair, University of Illinois Extension
- 10:45 AM Break
- 11:00 AM What happens if we find ASF in Illinois?
Dr. Jim Lowe, University of Illinois Extension
Dr. Mark Ernst, State Veterinarian, Illinois Department of Agriculture
Dr. Staci Slager, Asst. State Veterinarian, Illinois Department of Agriculture
- 12:00 PM Lunch provided by Illinois Pork Producers Association
- 12:30 PM How can I be prepared if ASF is detected in Illinois?
Dr. Jim Lowe, University of Illinois Extension
Dr. Mark Ernst, State Veterinarian, Illinois Department of Agriculture
- 1:15 PM Break
- 1:30 PM Market Outlook for 2020
Ross Logan, Commodity & Ingredient Hedging
- 2:15 PM If my farm must be depopulated, how can I dispose of the mortalities?
Dr. Ted Funk, Agricultural Engineering Consultant
- 3:00 PM Program Concludes

